About this Agreement

Impartiality

Impartiality requires the disclosure of such circumstances which could give the impression of bias. This could include, for example, in connection with name of HEI:

- Currently running application process, appeal hearings or impending change
- Less than five years of past employment or study
- Relatives, close personal or professional ties to or conflicts with the members of the University's staff
- Participation in commissions, advisory committees or advisory bodies that affect the evaluation procedure immediately
- Currently running intensive cooperation projects relating to study programme directly
- Assessment by the members within the past year.
